The screenshot shows the IBM Watson Assistant web interface. The browser address bar displays a URL from `us-east.assistant.watson.cloud.ibm.com`. The page title is "IBM Watson Assistant" with links for "Life", "Upgrade", and "HOSPITAL BOT". The main content area is titled "Actions" and shows a list of actions created by the user. A table lists one action named "Hello" with a status of "Created by you". The table has columns for "Name", "Last edited", "Examples Count", and "Status". The "Hello" action was last edited "5 minutes ago" and has "2" examples. The page also includes a "New action" button and a "Preview" button.

Name	Last edited	Examples Count	Status
Hello	5 minutes ago	2	Created by you

The screenshot shows a chat preview interface for the IBM Watson Assistant. The background is a photograph of a clothing store interior. A yellow chat bubble contains the text "Hi! I'm a virtual assistant. How can I help you today?". Below the bubble are three example messages: "Hello", "Example: Check account balance", and "Example: See how I can help". A text input field at the bottom of the chat bubble is labeled "Type something...". The page footer indicates "Built with IBM Watson®".
